

Est-ce que tu as vu le film ?

Charline: Dis-moi, Arthur, j'aimerais bien aller au ciné en ce moment, qu'est-ce que tu peux me proposer ?

Arthur: eh bien, il y a le film « Alliés », là, qui a l'air pas mal

Charline: C'est quel genre de film ?

Arthur: C'est un film d'action plutôt qui se passe pendant la Seconde Guerre mondiale

Charline: Mais tu l'as vu ?

Arthur: Ouais, j'y suis allé la semaine dernière

Charline: D'accord, et il dure longtemps ?

Arthur: Euh... de mémoire, il dure 1h50, je crois

Charline: D'accord

Arthur: Et ouais, il était vraiment bien

Charline: Il a de bonnes critiques ?

Arthur: Oui, sur les sites de critiques, il lui mets 4 sur 5

Charline: D'accord. Et les acteurs, c'est qui ?

Arthur: Alors, il y a Brad Pitt

Charline: Ouais

Did you see the movie ?

Charline: Tell me, Arthur, I would like to go to the cinema (ciné is short for cinema), what can you suggest ?

Arthur: oh well, there is the film 'Allied' there/now which looks not bad

Charline: What kind of film is it ?

Arthur: It's mostly an action film which happens (se passer = happen) during the second world war

Charline: but did you see it ?

Arthur: Yeah, I went last week (y represents 'there')

Charline: okay, and does it last long ?

Arthur: Um, from memory, it lasts one hour and 50 minutes

Charline: okay

Arthur: and yeah, it was really good

Charline: Does it have good critiques ?

Arthur: Yes, on the critiques websites, they give it 4 out of 5 (4 sur 5)

Charline: okay, and the actors, who is it ?

Arthur: Well, there's Brad Pitt

Charline: Yeah
